Lyrics:
Last night Who knew that night would be— It would be one night that changed the world for me. I did-n't know it yet, I would have lost a bet_ if I had wag-ered ten bucks on who I would have met. Last night It start-ed out quite bland.
I mean it was all right But no-thing grand It was the us - u - al gloom Then you walked in the room And my heart went ka - boom last night. So ma - ny days go by They were all the same to me. Then at a mo-ment in time Life turns on a dime And what a change in eve - ry-thing since Last night I was the same old girl_ as an - y past night In my same old world_
But then the air got thin_ And ta - bles start - ed to spin_ the sec - ond you walked in last night.
